Mercy

*What doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly,
and to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with thy God* - Micah 6:8.

This is a very well-known Scripture, but unfortunately, an injunction not often followed. Surely though, to be just and humble will lead us to act with mercy. How often we need another's mercy! How often do we give it? The Bible assures us that our God is merciful.

The LORD thy God is a merciful God - Deuteronomy 4:31.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him - Daniel 9:9.

God, who is rich in mercy, for His great love wherewith He loved us, even when we were dead in sins - Ephesians 2:4.

We have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities ... Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy - Hebrews 4:16.

The dictionary describes MERCY as: Compassion or forbearance shown to enemies or offenders in one's power.

Unforgiven, we are at enmity with God, but He offers mercy to all who humble themselves to acknowledge their need, and ask - Proverbs 28:13.

Jesus spoke of our fitting response to God's mercy:

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy - Matthew 5:7.

In a parable: I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me;

Shouldest not thou also have had compassion (mercy) on thy fellow servant - Matthew 18:32, 33.

Paul also writes:

He that sheweth mercy, (let him do it) with cheerfulness - Romans 12:8.

*Now I have found the ground wherein Sure my soul's anchor may remain -
The wounds of Jesus, for my sin
Before the world's foundation slain;
Whose mercy shall unshaken stay,
When heaven and earth are fled away.*
